TEACH THE SPORT FOR LIFE

As a central part of thriving communities, teachers always look for new ways to bring subjects to life for students. With Net Generation, the USTA is committed to helping teachers introduce tennis in PE classes and after-school programs.

Net Generation encourages kids to become engaged and challenge themselves with a new standard of play. The easy-to-follow curricula help teachers shape the game for individuals, so they can advance at their own pace. More importantly, it uses tennis as a pathway to personal development beyond the court.

RESOURCES AND PROGRAMS

Community programs under Net Generation are designed to introduce our game to kids ages 5-18 at all abilities to build confidence, improve skills, and have fun. Programs are available for all ages and skill levels. For more information, visit www.netgeneration.com.

Net Generation is committed to the USTA's goal of providing a safe, fun, and healthy environment for all players. Our program's goal is to provide a safe, fun, and healthy environment for all players. Our program's goal is to provide a safe, fun, and healthy environment for all players.
