TEACH THE SPORT FOR LIFE

A central part of thriving communities, teachers always look for new ways to bring subjects to life for students. With Net Generation, the USTA is committed to helping teachers introduce tennis to PE classes and other school programs.

Net Generation encourages kids to become engaged and challenge themselves with a new standard of play. The Net Generation coaching teachers share the game for individuals, so they can advance at their own pace. More importantly, it can become a pathway to personal development beyond the court.

SCGVT Awards Dinner 2023

Coach Bob Davis Play For Pink Girls Varsity Tennis Doubles Tournament September 24, 2023

Winners(R): Matilda Buchen / Julia Stabile (Westhampton)
Finalists (L): Evangeline Romano / Emelia Romano (Sayville)

Although the weather caused the event to move indoors, we were able to accept 26 Suffolk County girls' varsity tennis doubles teams (52 players).

Players from 17 Suffolk County varsity tennis teams played round robin timed matches at Eastern Athletic Club-Blue Point

Thanks to Eastern Athletic Club – Blue Point and Gary Gaudio (Director of Tennis EAC) for donating the courts, making this year's event possible.

Special thanks to the Christina and Nina Brownie and Jen and Lianna McCormack of Bayport Blue Point for setting up and running our first-ever raffle. They raised an additional $600 and gave out great prizes and ribbons. The event raised over $1500 with the net proceeds donated to Good Samaritan Hospital Breast Health Center.

Event recap and photos at: www.suffolktenniscoaches.org Click?> Events

2023 SCTCA Community Service Award is presented to Gary Gaudio

For the continued support of SCTCA community events and in appreciation of your efforts to make the tennis courts at Eastern Athletic Club -Blue Point available for fund raising and competition events.
